The National Coaching and Officiating Accreditation Schemes (NCAS and NOAS) aim to improve the standard of coaching and officiating in Australia by providing a structured pathway of coach and official education. The NCAS and NOAS utilise competency based training principles which involves assessment of the coach or official in order to gain accreditation.

It is important that the quality of assessment conducted within the NCAS and NOAS is of a high standard. This course is designed to develop the knowledge and skills of individuals involved with assessing NCAS or NOAS candidates so they can confidently meet the requirements of competency based assessment.

To successfully complete this course you must attend both presentation evenings, complete the participant manual and satisfactorily complete the assessment task.

Topics covered:

- Planning the assessment process
- Assessing competence.

Presenters:

- Simon Woinarski – Coordinator, NSW Sports Education
- Rebecca Neale – Senior Project Officer, Sport and Recreation.

This program is a joint initiative of the Australian Sports Commission and Sport and Recreation.

Note: If this course is taken in conjunction with the Presenter training course (available Mondays 10 and 17 May, 2010) there is a discount – see below for details.
